

Oakland County Business Update

<http://yourbusinessworkshop.blogspot.com/2010/12/fashion-for-compassion-show-is-friday.html>

The Oakland County area has an abundance of opportunities for existing businesses and new ventures. When the going gets rough, the entrepreneurial spirit gets creative and resourceful. The Oakland Press has gathered upcoming events, news and links to help business owners and professionals succeed.

Thursday, December 2, 2010

SOUTHFIELD

Farbman Group wins Alfred P. Sloan award for flexibility

Farbman Group/NAI Farbman, a full-service real estate firm, announced the company has been named the recipient of the Alfred P. Sloan Award for Excellence in the Workplace for the fourth consecutive year.

Farbman Group/NAI Farbman was recognized for willingness to offer part-time employment, job sharing, allowing employees to work from home, support of staff pursuing higher education through flex-time hours, and their ability to integrate family into the workplace.

Visit www.Farbman.com.